

The World's Hottest Pizza Challenge

In the world of hot peppers, the Carolina Reaper reigns king. The Carolina Reaper is more than twice as hot as the well known Ghost pepper. Heat is measured in Scoville Heat Units. The Ghost clocks in at about one million units.

The Carolina Reaper destroys the Ghost with over 2.3 million heat units! We have taken The Carolina Reaper and added our Award Winning Pizza to perfect the World's Hottest Pizza!

THE CHALLENGE

The Challenge is to eat an entire slice of Pizza. The contestant cannot drink water, milk or any other liquid for five minutes. When you make it to the five minute mark you WIN!

If you can't handle the heat, relief is just a cowbell ring away.

You LOSE!

Winners will receive a US One Hundred Dollar Bill.

Location: Rick's Pizza in front of BMO Center

All contestants will be required to sign a waiver
