

CALGARY STAMPEDE CHUCKWAGON CANVAS AUCTION – 2019 RULES

1. Chuckwagon canvas advertisers shall have the right to advertise on their driver's canvas for ten (10) days of chuckwagon racing during the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby, July 5th through 14th. Successful bidders have the exclusive right to advertise on the driver's chuckwagon canvas that they have purchased.
 - a. An "Advertiser" is defined as any individual, group, company, or group of entities NOT exceeding ten (10) individual entities that successfully purchases the rights to advertise with a driver for the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby, including any individual, group, company, or group of entities that purchases such rights from the original successful bidder (the "Sub-Advertiser");
 - b. In the event that a Sub-Advertiser purchases a portion of the rights to advertise with a driver for the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby i.e. for example, for any of one, two or five nights, the original Advertiser and each Sub-Advertiser shall execute the "Sub-Advertiser Agreement", as found in the Buyer's Manual, and shall forthwith submit the same to the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office;
 - c. There will be ONE Main Contact person of record for each Advertiser or Sub-Advertiser. Advertisers or Sub-Advertisers are to coordinate their requests through that ONE contact person to the Stampede at all times. Only the Main Contact has the authority to discuss any pertinent issues with the Chuckwagon Committee or Calgary Stampede.
 - d. A designated alternate contact, for both Advertisers and Sub-Advertisers must be provided to the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office should the Main Contact be unable to fulfill their duties.
 - e. Drivers are prohibited from purchasing their own canvas in the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby. Any driver found in breach of this policy will be disqualified from competing in the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby and subsequently will also be disqualified from competing in the 2020 and 2021 Calgary Stampede GMC Rangeland Derbies.
 - f. Drivers may be involved in organizing a group of companies to be recognized as an advertiser. That group can purchase any driver – provided there is a designated representative of the group (not the driver) who can legally sign the purchase agreement.
2. The Calgary Stampede does not guarantee that a chuckwagon driver and/or wagon outfit will perform for ten consecutive days.
 - a. If a driver and/or wagon outfit must be replaced for any reason, including but not limited to, injury, illness, compassionate reasons, suspension or disqualification prior to or during the 2019 GMC Rangeland Derby, in whole or in part, designated Calgary Stampede Officials, in their sole and unfettered discretion, are responsible for selecting a replacement driver and wagon outfit.
 - b. The replacement driver and wagon outfit will be entitled to all prize monies and canvas proceeds on a pro rata basis for the performance(s) in which they compete.
3. Tarp purchases of $100,000 and over will entitle the Advertiser to:
 - 20 VIP passes per day (single entry)
 - 2 VIP catering passes per day – sent directly to your catering company as applicable
 - 1 parking pass per day
 - 25 Barns passes or the option to purchase VIP passes up to 25 combined maximum per day
 - Option to purchase 2 additional parking passesTarp purchases of $99,999 and under will entitle the Advertiser to:
 - 15 VIP passes per day (single entry)
 - 2 VIP catering passes per day – sent directly to your catering company as applicable
 - 1 parking pass per day
 - 25 Barns passes or the option to purchase VIP passes up to 25 combined maximum per day
 - Option to purchase 2 additional parking passes

In any and all circumstances, an Advertiser or Sub-Advertiser on any given night, is entitled to a limited maximum total number of staff and/or guests in the Chuckwagon barns area, due to City of Calgary fire regulations, which are strictly enforced.

4. A Sub-Advertiser shall be entitled to the number of each of the foregoing prerequisites as set out in paragraph 3 above as shall be specified and designated on the Sub-Advertiser Agreement. It is CRITICAL that each Advertiser and its respective Sub-Advertiser(s) define these details on the Sub-Advertiser Agreement as the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office will only allocate those passes as defined on the Sub-Advertiser Agreement. In no event shall the allocation of passes on a given night between an Advertiser and Sub-Advertiser exceed the total passes specified in paragraph 3 above.

Advertisers and Sub-Advertisers are offered the opportunity to purchase additional Gate and Evening Grandstand admissions to facilitate their needs. Please see your Buyer's Manual for details and request forms.

5. Payment Terms

Full Payment of the total accepted bid price plus GST is due on or before 4:00 p.m. APRIL 26th, 2019.

If the above payment deadline is not adhered to, the Calgary Stampede has the authority to place the canvas with an alternate buyer and the original successful bidder will be responsible for any loss, damages or expenses suffered by the Calgary Stampede and/or the driver resulting from the default of payment.

 - a. A Canvas purchased by a group of entities may carry up to ten (10) company logos. Logos can be displayed on a tarp in any combination throughout the 10 days (one per canvas or up to 10 per canvas), but on any given night only one company will be acknowledged by the Announcer. ALL canvas designs must be pre-approved by the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office.
 - b. Each Wagon will be required to register the "Day Name" that the wagon will run under for each of the 10 days with the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office by May 30th, 2019 and must be accompanied by the "One Line announcements" for each day. All "Day Names" and "One Line Announcements" must be received by this deadline, without exception.
 - c. Each Wagon will be referred to by the Driver's name with the exception of that GMC Rangeland Derby Daysheets, Website reports and Media results produced during the ten days will list the "Day Name" for each Wagon along with the Driver daily.
 - d. It is the responsibility of each Sub-Advertiser to get their tarp pre-approved by the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office for the night(s) that such tarp will be on the respective Wagon, as well as registration of the "Day Name" and "One Line Announcements".
9. The Driver acknowledges and agrees that by participating in the canvas auction process the Calgary Stampede shall have no liability or responsibility to the driver for unpaid sale proceeds.
10. The Calgary Stampede will hold back an Administration Fee of 20% plus GST from the Canvas Auction. This fee will be used to offset expenses related to prize money, administration and production.
11. All on-site (Calgary Stampede Park) promotions and marketing efforts to be undertaken by the Advertiser and/or any Sub-Advertiser(s) must be submitted in writing for approval to the Western Events Administration/Rodeo and Chuckwagon Office prior to May 31st, 2019.
12. Advertisers and Sub-Advertisers are expressly prohibited from using any and all Calgary Stampede branding and all trademarks and logos, including but not limited to, "GMC Rangeland Derby", "Calgary Stampede", "Stampede Park", "Bar 80" and/or "Chuckwagon Committee", without the express prior written permission of the Calgary Stampede.
13. Canvas Auction monies will be disbursed by the Calgary Stampede as follows:
 - a. $15,000.00 to the driver after the fourth day of racing at the Calgary Stampede GMC Rangeland Derby.
 - b. Balance to the driver after the tenth day of racing at the Calgary Stampede GMC Rangeland Derby.
 - c. In the event that the driver/wagon outfit is unable to complete the full ten days of chuckwagon racing, for any reason, including but not limited to, injury, illness, suspension or disqualification and the Calgary Stampede is unable to secure a replacement driver and/or wagon outfit, the Advertiser will be reimbursed for a portion of their successful bid price, on a pro rata basis, for those nights that the subject wagon outfit does not run providing the Advertiser is not responsible for the suspension or disqualification.
14. The Driver is entitled to all prize money and trophies awarded at the Calgary Stampede, except any monies and trophies withheld as a result of penalties, fines, suspension or disqualification.
15. The Calgary Stampede reserves the right, in its sole and unfettered discretion, to not issue a bid card to a potential Advertiser or to not accept a successful bidder Advertiser or any Sub-Advertiser(s) if the Stampede determines participation by an individual, group, company or group of entities in the GMC Rangeland Derby would be detrimental to the sport of chuckwagon racing, the GMC Rangeland Derby and/or the Calgary Stampede.
16. All Advertisers and Sub-Advertisers must abide by all regulatory bodies and agencies and their applicable regulations while participating within the chuckwagon hosting area. This includes (but is not limited to) Alberta Gaming And Liquor Commission and Alberta Health Services policies for the serving and consumption of food and alcohol, Calgary Police Service and Calgary Fire Department in fire prevention and people safety.
17. Failure to comply with set out rules by any Advertiser or Sub-Advertiser may result in the suspension of further participation in the current year's Chuckwagon hosting, and may impact future participation as an Advertiser.
